NOTICE OF OBJECTION TO AND TREATMENT OF EMPLOYEE CLAIMS NO. XXXX

NAME
STREET ADDRESS
CITY, STATE ZIP

Dear XXXX:

W. R. Grace & Co. ("Grace") is providing this Notice to you regarding the proof of claim you filed in Grace's bankruptcy case (your "Employee Claims") regarding benefits you are claiming pursuant to one or more of Grace's existing plans, programs, and policies regarding employee bonuses and other compensation, indemnity agreements, or various medical, insurance, severance, retiree and other benefits (collectively, the "Grace Benefit Programs").

A copy of your Employee Claims is attached to this Notice for your reference. Any attachments you may have submitted with your Employee Claims is not attached to this Notice. Please note that this Notice and the procedures described herein shall not affect any claim that you may have filed in these chapter 11 cases other than the Employee Claims attached to this Notice.

Grace's books and records show that, as of April 2, 2001, the date on which Grace commenced its bankruptcy case, you were either a current employee, former employee or a beneficiary of a former employee of Grace. As such, you were entitled to receive certain benefits (your "Applicable Employee Benefits") from one or more Grace Benefit Programs (including, but not limited to, salary and other compensation).

Please note that, prior to Grace's bankruptcy case, your Applicable Employee Benefits were subject to amendment, modification or termination under the terms of the applicable Grace Benefit Program or under applicable non-bankruptcy law. These limitations are referred to in this Notice as the "Non-Bankruptcy Limitation". This Non-Bankruptcy Limitation to your Applicable Employee Benefits has continued while Grace is in bankruptcy, and will continue to exist after Grace emerges from bankruptcy.

Your Applicable Employee Benefits have not been, and will not be in the future, affected by Grace's chapter 11 bankruptcy case.

Since April 2001, according to Grace's books and records, you have been receiving all your Applicable Employee Benefits (subject to the Non-Bankruptcy Limitation). You will continue to receive all your Applicable Employee Benefits (subject to the Non-Bankruptcy Limitation) at least for as long as Grace remains in bankruptcy.

Your Applicable Employee Benefits will not be affected by Grace's emergence from bankruptcy.

On January 31, 2011, the Bankruptcy Court confirmed Grace's plan of reorganization (the "Plan"). Grace expects to emerge from chapter 11 early next year (the "Effective Date").¹ The Plan provides that, on the Effective Date, Grace will continue the Grace Benefit Programs by assuming the contractual obligations arising from those benefit programs. Therefore, you will see no change in your Applicable Employee Benefits as a result of Grace's emergence from bankruptcy on the Effective Date, and you will continue to receive all your Applicable Employee Benefits after the Effective Date, subject to the Non-Bankruptcy Limitation.

The procedural disallowance of your Employee Claim will not affect your Applicable Employee Benefits.

Grace has asked the Bankruptcy Court to "disallow" your Employee Claims under applicable bankruptcy law as of the Effective Date for the reasons discussed below. But this procedural matter will not affect your Applicable Employee Benefits.

As you are aware, you have been receiving your Applicable Employee Benefits since Grace began its bankruptcy case, and you will continue to receive those benefits at least until Grace emerges from its bankruptcy case, all subject to the Non-Bankruptcy Limitation. Thus you will not have an "allowable" claim for unpaid benefits because you already will have received all the benefits to which you are entitled.

As discussed above, the Plan provides that you will continue to receive your Applicable Employee Benefits after Grace emerges from bankruptcy (subject to the Non-Bankruptcy Limitation) because Grace is "assuming" those Grace Benefit Programs as a matter of applicable bankruptcy law. This means that you will not have an "allowable" claim in Grace's bankruptcy case for any future Applicable Employee Benefits.

Grace has filed a motion (the "Objection") with the Bankruptcy Court requesting that the Court disallow your Employee Claims for the reasons described above. At a hearing scheduled for December 18, 2013, the Court will consider whether to enter an order to disallow your Employee Claims as of the Effective Date.

Please note that, if Grace does not emerge from bankruptcy pursuant to the Plan or if Grace proposes and the Court confirms a different chapter 11 plan of reorganization that does not require Grace to assume the Grace Benefit Programs, any order entered by the Bankruptcy Court disallowing your Employee Claims will be void, and your Employee Claims will be reinstated for all purposes.

Therefore, the Objection, which requests the Court disallow your Employee Claims, will not affect your Applicable Employee Benefits.

PLEASE NOTE

You do not need to respond to this Notice or the Objection. The Bankruptcy Court's entry of the proposed order will not affect your Applicable Employee Benefits, which include but are not limited to salary and other compensation that you are now receiving and have been receiving since Grace commenced its bankruptcy case. You will continue to receive your Applicable Employee Benefits after Grace emerges from bankruptcy on the Effective Date, subject to the Non-Bankruptcy Limitation.

If you believe that you have not been receiving all benefits to which you are entitled, or if you have a question about your Applicable Employee Benefits, you do not need to respond to this Objection to preserve your rights or to have your question answered. You should instead contact BMC to discuss the benefits to which you believe that you are entitled, but have not been receiving.
